ANGEL DELIGHT: My Sugarland, the fashion and lifestyle boutique that opened in London's Angel neighborhood last fall, is Zoe Lem's playground. Designs by London-based labels such as SteveJ and YoniP, Belle Sauvage and Evie Belle sit alongside vintage accessories and furniture sourced by Lem, who is a former fashion stylist. In the vintage area of the 2,500-square-foot space, secondhand clothes and accessories hang against a scarlet wall while sumptuous antique furniture and birdcages and Lionel Dean hats sit on white podiums in a more futuristic area at the back.
